PETITIONER/PLAINTIFF: RESPONDENT/DEFENDANT: OTHER PARENT:	CASE NUMBER:

DECLARATION AND CONDITIONAL WAIVER OF RIGHTS UNDER THE SERVICEMEMBERS CIVIL RELIEF ACT

Attachment to Appearance, Stipulations, and Waivers (form FL-130)

Notice to Servicemember

The Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (50 U.S.C. §§ 3901–4043) is a federal law that provides protections for military members when they enter active duty. You may obtain a copy of the act from the public law library or from the website of the United States Department of Justice at www.justice.gov.

By signing this conditional waiver and attaching it to Appearance, Stipulations, and Waivers (form FL-130), I declare that I am entitled to the benefits of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA), and:

1. To permit the court to decide this cause as an uncontested matter and enter a judgment that incorporates the terms of the written agreement made between the petitioner and me (a copy of which is attached to this form), I make a knowing, intelligent, and voluntary conditional waiver of the right to seek to set aside a default judgment entered against me in this matter, as provided by section 3918 of the SCRA.

2. This waiver is conditioned as follows:
   a. The waiver applies only to a default judgment that incorporates the terms and conditions of the written agreement between the petitioner and me that is titled (specify):
      (1) q Stipulation for Judgment
      (2) q Marital Settlement Agreement
      (3) q Other (specify):
   b. The court must enter a judgment in this case that incorporates only the terms and conditions of the above written agreement without any change; and
   c. Should the court enter a judgment that changes the above written agreement in any way, then I do not waive any of my rights under the SCRA, including my right to seek to set aside the judgment at any time.

3. This conditional waiver was executed during or after a period of military service.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.
