

1 If you received a Request for Order (form FL-300),

- Carefully read the papers you received to make sure you understand what orders are being requested.
- Note the date, time, and location of the court hearing.
- Check to see if the court ordered a specific date for filing and serving your Responsive Declaration to Request for Order (form FL-320).
- If you need more time before the hearing to prepare a responsive declaration or talk with a lawyer, you may ask the court to continue the hearing date. For more information, consult with a lawyer or contact the the Family Law Facilitator or Self-Help Center in your court (see item 16).

2 USE Responsive Declaration to Request for Order (form FL-320)

Use form FL-320 to let the court and the other party know that you agree or disagree with each of the requests made in the Request for Order (form FL-300).

- If you disagree, use form FL-320 to describe the orders you would like the court to make.
- If you do not file and serve form FL-320, the court can still make orders without your input.

3 DO NOT USE Responsive Declaration to Request for Order (form FL-320) to:

- Ask for court orders that were not requested in the Request for Order (form FL-300). Instead, file and serve your own Request for Order (form FL-300) to ask for orders about other issues.
- Respond to Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order (form DV-100). Instead, you must use Response to Request for Domestic Restraining Order (form DV-120).

8 Pay filing fees

Generally, you do not have to pay a fee to file the Responsive Declaration. However, if you have never filed any papers in the case, you may have to pay a “first appearance fee,” which, in general, everyone has to pay when filing court papers in a case for the first time.

If you cannot afford to pay the filing fee, you can ask the court to waive the fees. To do so, complete and file form FW-001, Request to Waive Court Fees and form FW-003, Order on Court Fee Waiver.

9 Serve your papers on the other party

“Service” is the act of giving your legal papers to all persons named as parties in the case so that they know what orders you want the court to make. Note: If a party has a lawyer in the case, the papers should be served on that party’s lawyer.

10 How to “serve”

Server. You cannot serve the papers. Have someone else (who is at least 18 years old) do it. The “server” can be a friend, a relative who is not involved in your case, a county sheriff, or a professional process server.

Personal service.

Your papers may be served by “personal service.” “Personal service” means that your “server” walks up to each person to be served, makes sure he or she is the right person, and then gives a copy of all the papers to him or her.

Service by mail.

“Service by mail” means that your “server” places copies in a sealed envelope and mails them to the address of each party being served (or to the party’s lawyer, if he or she has one.) The server must be 18 years of age or over and must live or work in the county where the mailing took place.

11 Deadline for service

Personal service or service by mail on the other party must be completed at least 9 court days before the court hearing. If the court has ordered a shorter time to serve your responsive papers, be sure to have them served by the date specified in the court order.

12 Server must complete a Proof of Service

After personal service, the server should complete a form FL-330, Proof of Personal Service. Form FL-330-INFO, Information Sheet for Proof of Personal Service has instructions to help the person complete the form.

After service by mail, the server should complete form FL-335, Proof of Service by Mail. Form FL-335-INFO, Information Sheet for Proof of Service by Mail has instructions to help the person complete the form.

13 File the Proof of Service before your hearing date

The Proof of Service shows the judge that the person received a copy of your Responsive Declaration to Request for Order. Make three copies of the completed Proof of Service. Take the original and copies to the court clerk as soon as possible before your hearing.

The clerk will keep the original and give you back the copies stamped “Filed.” Bring a copy stamped “Filed” to your hearing. (If unstamped copies of your paperwork were served, you can file the completed Proof of Service when you file the original Responsive Declaration.)

14 Participate in child custody mediation or child custody recommending counseling

If the Request for Order includes a court order for you to attend mediation or child custody recommending counseling, the date, time, and location is found on page 1 of the Request for Order. For more information, read Child Custody Information Sheet (form FL-313-INFO or form FL-314-INFO).
