

INSTRUCTIONS: ORDER FOR VICTIM RESTITUTION

A. Attorney or Person Without Attorney

Write the name of your attorney. If you are representing yourself, your name goes here.

B. Telephone Number

Your telephone number goes here. You may also give a number where the court can leave a message for you.

C. Fax Number

You may write in your fax number here or you may leave this line blank.

D. Email Address

You may write in your e-mail address here or you may leave this line blank.

E. Name and Address of Court

Ask the clerk of your court for this information, including the court's address.

F. Case Name

Use the assigned case name. Example: In re John D. or People of the State of California v. Doe.

G. Case Number

Write the assigned case number in this space. You need to write this number at the top of every page of this form.

H. For Court Use Only

Leave blank. After this form is filed, the clerk will stamp this box on the copies so everyone knows they are copies of an official court document.

I. Order for Restitution

- If the person was convicted in criminal court, write in the date of the defendant's conviction and the defendant's name.
- In cases where a child has been found to be a person described in Welfare and Institutions Code section 602, check item b and fill in the date of the hearing and the child's name.
- If the parents or guardians are jointly and severally liable, write the names in the space provided.
- If co-offenders were found jointly and severally liable, write the names in the space provided.

This section must be completed by either you or the court. A separate order and abstract of judgment should be completed for each defendant or child ward found guilty of an offense.

J. Judicial Determination of Restitution

The defendant or child has a right to a restitution hearing. The hearing can be waived if the defendant or child agrees to give up his or her right to have a hearing. The amount of restitution may also be stipulated if the amount of restitution to be ordered is agreed to by all parties and the judge makes an order for the amount based on an agreement by all parties. It is very important to check the appropriate boxes to indicate whether the defendant or child has had a hearing or has waived the hearing. If you do not have all of the relevant information to complete this section, then the court should complete it for you.

K. Restitution Ordered to Pay

- If the court ordered the offender to pay you, write your name as the victim and the amount of restitution ordered by the court. Make sure the amount of restitution is not left blank or "to be determined." A dollar amount must be listed for the order to be enforceable.
- Check this box if the court ordered the California Victim Compensation Board to receive reimbursement for funds previously paid to you or your service provider by the Restitution Fund. Make sure the amount of reimbursement is not left blank or "to be determined." A dollar amount must be listed for the order to be enforceable.

Order for Victim Restitution (form CR-110/JV-790) is the court order or judgment directing the offender to repay you for any losses that you suffered because of the offense. Once this judgment is entered in the court records, you may use it to collect the money you are owed from the offender. If the court does not give you a certified copy of the order, ask the clerk for one and check to make sure the judgment is entered. If the offender does not pay you, you have several options, including getting the offender to pay you voluntarily, getting more information about the offender, and collecting from the offender's property. If you choose to try to collect from the value of real estate owned by the offender, you will need to record an abstract of the judgment with the county recorder in the county where the property is located. For more information about this process, see Abstract of Judgment-Restitution (form CR-111/JV-791) and Instructions: Abstract of Judgment-Restitution (form CR-113/JV-793). For more information about this and other options for collecting your restitution judgment, see the California Courts Online Self-Help Center at www.courts.ca.gov/1014.htm.
