NOTICE

At the end of the proceeding, the court will determine a reasonable amount to pay the appointed attorney.

- | If the client is a minor child, the court will order the child's parent or parents or the child's estate to pay as much of that amount as is just and they are able to pay.
- | If the client is an adult, the court will order the client or the client's estate to pay as much of the amount as the client is able to pay.
- | If the court determines that no one who is legally responsible for payment is able to pay the amount or any part of it, the county will be responsible for paying the part that is unpaid.
- | The Judicial Council has published guidelines for determining whether a person is able to pay the appointed attorney as Appendix E to the California Rules of Court.
