⑤ To the parent, guardian, child or nonminor dependent, and the child's Indian tribe or Indian custodian in the case of an Indian child: If you do not agree with the placement of the youth in the short-term residential therapeutic program, you may inform the court of your objection. To do so, you must use form JV-236, Input on Placement in Short-Term Residential Therapeutic Program and file it with the court. The court will set a hearing and will inform you when the hearing will occur. Before the hearing, you will receive a report from the social worker or probation officer that will explain why the placement was made and how it serves the needs of the child or nonminor dependent. The report is described in Welfare and Institutions Code section 361.22(c) (dependency), or 727.12(c) (delinquency).

If the agency indicates in ④ that they will request approval of the replacement without a hearing, your objection must be filed with the court within five court days of when you receive the report for the hearing. If no objections are received, the court may approve the placement without a hearing.
